HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

(By Spiritual Telegraph.)
The Spiritualistic poems by departed bards that have heretofore been published in The Herald of Progress and other papers of that class, have not been much to the purpose; but the following effusion, purporting to be from the disembodied au-

Don Juan," is at once practical, pointed and poetly

And since, exceeding learned, grave and sage; But the STONACHICS they were bound to fall in, Success came not until this later age. Now is the era sick folks are made hale in.

And dread DYSPEPSIA driven from the stage.
AGUES, REMITTENTS, HEAD-ACHES—real head-splitters— Vanish, like smoke, before Hosterran's Birrans.

Famous for furnaces and coal bitaminous, (Which, though by day they may not be deemed pretty, Make it by night particularly luminous.) For the complaints that else would be consuming us.

I don't mean us, but those who, not being sprites.

BITTERS require to put their frames to rights. Herbs, barks and roots compose the rare infusion; And Rye's mild essence holds them in solution.

The taste is pleasant, the effect is sure. Ne'er have the BITTERS yet proved a delusion; Try them in time, and health and strength secure. And they, like him, TO SAVE THE WEAK ARE ABLE far surpass those of the frightful "Middle Passage" of the African slave-ship. They can not be conceived by a stranger o such awful tortures, excepting the sufferer from the horro of dyspepsia. Yet we are sure that If Father Abraham could clear, Those rebel prisons foul and drear, Of all their deadly atmosphere, Even as these Bitters of Hostetter Make the forlors dyspeptic better— Dispelling all that fearful train Of troubles that distract his brain—

That fire his stomach, rack his bones, And break his sleep with painful groans Our suffering soldiers soon would be From loathsome Rebel dungsons from THE SWAMPS OF SOUTH CAROLINA. The hotheds of Secession, vast in extent, treacherous an lence, are prolific of missimatic disorders, from the simplest chill and fever to the terrible "Yellow Jack." Gen. Hunter's preventive for his soldiers, while in command of that depart-ment, was a little quintine mixed with whisky, and administered in "prophylatic doses," morning and evening. But the nowing veterans from these Carolina swamps, who have tried HOSTETTER'S prescriptions, say that When the mists of the morning Arise as a warning.

And the dews of the night Descend with a blight, Where our Bitters employed The missma's destroyed. The antidote's feit in the taking : There follows no weakness or aching; No heaviness, trembling, or quaking; No torture of freezing or burning: No restlessness, yawning, or yearning For water; no twisting or turning; But health, strength, and spirit to wag or And to night like St. George with the dragon.
THE DISCOVERIES AT FORT FISHER.

The Rebels have discovered that Fort Fisher was of no value them since they have lost it, while "our boys" have found in it the key that has unlocked all the outer defenses of Wil-mington. So, in gaining a hearty digestion, we secure the Fort Fisher of all the allments of the human system. To this end HOSTETTER'S BITTERS illustrate the combined acand expelling him.

Where the appetite falls they renew it, And 'tis not for the moment they do it; But anticipating the question; Our tonic restores the digestion. Relieved thus, and strengthened, the stomack No longer is felt as a hummock, No longer is lett as a nummers,
Or an enemy resiless and stealthy,
But scotve, elastic and healthy,
And this tone of the stomach you 'll find,
From its influence genial and kind,

Imparts the same vigorous tone to the frame he army of Gen. Sherman, from Atlanta, in the stomach o s tonic and an alterative, as we have seen, from the conclusthe Southern Confederacy. So, too, when from the exposures and irregularities of the soldier's life, our brave boys begin to

A half wine glass to those suffering me Say morning and evening, they'll need no more, Will soon their regular functions restore; Which, changed and deranged they now deplore, A mild alterative such troubles will cure, And ours is that remedy, pleasant and sure THE LATEST FROM HOOD'S ARMY.

Our latest advice from the shattered army of Gen. Hood is that, having retired into the woods of Northern Alabama, be laboring to repair damages, and with a poor prospect of suc-ess. This we believe to be true, but when from an attack of ickness the animal powers, like Hood's army, are shattered demoralized, broken up, as we may say—
When the body is weak and distressed,
And the mind is distorbed and depressed.

Our Bitters, we know, if you'll try, Will the wants of the system supply— New life to the blood, to the nerves, to the brain, Till you feel that "King Richard's himself again." THE WORLD'S OPINION. Touching the BITTERS this grand fact is clear, Their fame fills all the Western Hemisphere, Known in all lands, washed by its oceans twain, Health, Hope and Vigor follow in their train.

AVOID COUNTERFEITS. Hostetter's Bitters share the common fate Of all good things. Impostors imitate. Of these beware. Discreetly use your eyes. From honest houses purchase your supplies.

CAUTION.

THE GOVERNMENT INDORSEMENT. In order to guard against dangerous impositions, the public are requested to take especial note of the beautifully engraved proprietary stamp, through which the Government of United States officially authenticates every bottle of HOS-TETTER'S BITTERS. This shield, thrown by the Governent over the proprietors and the public for their joint pretection, is placed conspicuously across the cork and over hone ck of each bottle, and cannot full to strike the eye of the hene ck of each bottle, and cannot fail to strike the eye of the most casual observer. Nothing that purports to be HOSTET. TER'S BITTERS can be genuine unless the stamp is there. It is also proper to state that the BITTERS are sold exclusively in glass, and never under any circumstances by the gallon or the barrel. Imposters and imitstors are abroad, and the only asfeguard the public have against them is to see that the Bitters they buy pear the engraved label and note of hand of Meszr, Hostetter & Smith and the stamp above mentioned.

gicon is a compound of the two Greek words, neuron, a and locos, a discourse, with the suffix con. The meaning con veyed by the term is, that it is an instrument or machine de vised on philosophical principles, with a thorough knowledge

In describing the matter more at length to show its use that it may be better understood by the general sufferer, we give a simpler explanation. The nervous system is the sour of many diseases.

All physicians admit this, and all profess at least to be able to apply a remedy. The Allopathic, Homeopathic and Hydropathic, by prescribing opiates, anodynes, &c., may, and do to its normal condition. The Doctor's theory is, that each nerve has a specific office, and has its own peculiar susceptibil ity. Thus, for example, the nerve of vision is insensible to touch, and, on the other hand, the nerve of touch is insensit to light, and so on through the whole system. The greates

the world .- New-York Evening Express, Sept. 28, 1364. NEW TESTIMONIALS. CATARRH CURED,

LINCOLN HOSPITAL, WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. I. 1964. I have been for several years past afflicted with chronic dry Thave been no several year ago became so bad that my hearing charethe which a year ago became so bad that my hearing threatened to leave me altogether. My throat became greatly affected. There was a constant roaring in my head which, with the other symptoms, was always greatly aggravated by the slightest "cold." Dr. Von Eisenberg commenced treating me a year ago, and has continued to treat me at long intervals since. I am happy to state that the treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg has produced a containt improvement, so that my Eisenberg has produced a constant improvement, so that my hearing is almost perfectly restored. My nostrils are free from inflammation, and my general health is so much improved that I look for its permanent restoration, and that speedily, as a fixed fact. I do cheerfully recommend all persons suffering from catarrhal affections to apply to Dr. Von Eisenberg for treatment, feeling assured that with proper opportunity he will effect a cure.

JAMES T. PERRIE, Captain U. S. A. I was completely deaf for several years, and hearing of Dr. Von Eisenberg's great reputation in restoring the hearing, g called on him, and in one operation, to my great astonishment and excessive pleasure, I now hear perfectly well. I came in to the Doctor perfectly deaf, and hear as I never expected to. This skill is unrivaled.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5, 1864. SIGHT RESTORED.

AN EXTRAORDINARY RESTORATION OF SIGHT. I, LAWRENCE GRENNA, of No. 188 East 36th-st., New-York City, have been suffering from blindness of the left eye for a City, have been suffering from blindness of the left eye for a considerable period. The eye was continually in a state of great inflammation, from which the good eye became affected, and, indeed, my general health was greatly injured by it. Hearing of Dr. Von Elsenberg's great reputation, and as every one said mine was a hopeless case, I called on the Doctor, who, after examining me, undertook my case, and within a fortnight I found myself almost completely cured. It is now a month since I placed myself under Dr. Von Elsenberg's treatment. aince I piace hipse able to state that the inflammation is en-tirely gone, so that I see perfectly with both eyes; added to which I am in good health, a blessing I have not enjoyed since I was blind. I do conscientiously and gratefully swear to the above statement, in a Court of Justice at the City Hall of the City of New-York, the 10th day of October, 1864. LAWRENCE GRENNA.
